- CSOP China Ultra Short-Term Bond ETF (the "Sub-fund") is a physical index tracking exchange traded fund and it aims to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, closely correspond to the performance of the FTSE Chinese Government and Policy Bank Bond 0-1 Year Select Index (the "Index").
- The Sub-Fund will invest directly and mainly in PRC Government and Policy Bank Bonds through the Manager's RQFII status. Therefore, it is subject to interest rate risk.
- The Sub-Fund is subject to liquidity risk and valuation risk. In a thinly traded market, it may be more difficult to achieve fair value when purchasing or selling underlying securities because of the wide bid-ask spread.
- The Sub-Fund is exposed to the bond issuers' credit/insolvency risk and credit downgrading risk and this may adversely affect the Sub-Fund's performance.
- Investing in the PRC, involves a greater risk of loss due to greater political, social, tax, economic, foreign exchange, liquidity, regulatory risks, exchange rate fluctuations and exchange control.
- The Sub-Fund may be more volatile as the index tracks the performance of a single geographical region, namely the PRC and is concentrated in bonds of a limited number of issuers
- Investors without RMB accounts may buy and sell HKD traded Units only and distributions are made in RMB only. As such, investors may suffer a foreign exchange loss.
- The Sub-Fund may invest in bonds not included in index and may therefore be subject to larger tracking error than other traditional ETFs that fully replicate the index.
- Trading price of the Units on Stock Exchange of Hong Kong ("SEHK") is subject to market forces and may trade at a substantial premium or discount to the NAV per Unit.
- The manager may, at its discretion, pay dividends out of capital. Payment of dividends out of capital or effectively out of the capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to the original investment. The Sub-Fund may result in an immediate reduction of the NAV per Unit.
- This material has not been reviewed by the Securities and Futures Commission.
