

IMPORTANT:

- The Ping An of China CSI HK Dividend ETF (the "HK Dividend ETF") is an index-tracking exchange traded fund, which seeks to track the performance of the CSI Hong Kong Dividend Index (the "Index"). The return may deviate from that of the Index.
- The HK Dividend ETF is subject to concentration risk as a result of tracking the performance of companies whose operations and business are primarily from a single region (i.e. China and Hong Kong). Changes in political, economic and social conditions in the region could adversely affect the value of investments.
- The Index of HK Dividend ETF has 30 constituent stocks, therefore the ETF is likely to be more volatile than a fund tracking an index with a greater number of constituent stocks.
- There is no guarantee of the repayment of principal. Your investment in the fund may suffer losses.
- Dividend distributions are not guaranteed and are subject to the discretion of the Manager.
- The units of the HK Dividend ETF may trade at a discount or premium to the net asset value of the units, which may go up as well as down.
- Investment involves risks and the HK Dividend ETF may not be suitable for everyone. Investors should read the Prospectus and Product Key Facts Statement carefully for further details including various risk factors and consider their own investment objectives and other circumstances before investing.

Investment Objective

The Ping An of China CSI HK Dividend ETF aims to track the performance of the CSI Hong Kong Dividend Index (the "Index").

About the Index

The CSI Hong Kong Dividend Index is a stock index which seeks to reflect the performance of high yield securities in the Hong Kong market by selecting the 30 securities with high dividend yield, stable dividend payment and good liquidity from the entire universe of securities listed on the SEHK.
